FINANCIAL. The banks were doing a fairly active general business yesterday; money is in some demand, but not more than to a moderate amount; all acceptable borrowers can obtain characteristic of our streets in the winter seawhat they want, but take the whole market, son, and which at present covers them, makand, while there is an exception or two, there is no more money on the spot than is required, but resources are generally liberal. Exchange quotes as follows: New York buying is discount, selling if premium; New England buying at is discount, sight if discount, selling at premium; New Orleans buying is discount, selling at par. The New York Bulletin, of Thursday, reports: "New York Bulletin, of Thursday, reports: "New 36c. Boston, 12\(\frac{1}{2} \) de discount on late checks.\('' \) The St. Louis \(Republican, \) of Friday, says: 'Business at the banks seems to follow the gyrations of a see-saw, and any show of activity one day is pretty sure to be followed by a reaction the next, which leaves the situation more noticeably dull than it was before. Discounting was light, especially in the form of loans. Trade dollars are now sold in this city in considerable quantities, and a single broker ble quantities, and a single broker has sold all but $23,000 of $100,000 brought here during the last week. They have been sold at 90% currency, and are, of course, paid out at par by the purchaser." A half per cent, with no risk paid the speculator, but what did those get in return for their outlay who paid the profits so gained? In our home weakers all the speculation and at $3 per bri from store. Cabbages—mand at $3 per bri from store.

our home market all we could hear was a sale of $5000 Hernando insurance stock at 125, a good price, when we remember that a 10 per cent, dividend has just been paid, and therefore the 125 was for bare stock.

SPECIALISTS. DR. T. G. BRACKING. DR. T. G. BRACKING,

ATE OF NASHVILLE, TENNESSEE, IS LOcated at 27 South Court street, Memphis, Tennessee. His reputation in the successful and speedy cure of FEMALE DISEASES OF EVERY FORM AND DURATION, and of surgical diseases, etc., being so extensively and favorably known, is sufficient, he hopes, to insure the continuance of that liberal patronage and high confidence which he has enjoyed for years past. Large numbers of patients have visited him from hundreds of miles, many of them bed-ridden and helpless, and were happily cured. The wealthy and elife from everywhere consult him. Thousands of obstinate cases have been cured by him all over the country. Medicines sent to any address for the certain relief of scanty and painful periods. His success in the cure of cancerous diseases, fistulas of all kinds, piles, etc., is without any known parallel. Any desired amount of the best possible references and testimonials, in and out of the profession, can be seen at his office. Dr. Bracking is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania, and has studied the different schools of medicine as well, and has all the facilities that money can afford (and charges reasonable). He sleeps at his office, 27 South Court street, where NIGHT CALLS are prom ptlyresponded to.
